The DCI's request for comments on two topics related to leaks are addressed in the attached. Beyond that much needs to be done including:

- A massive educational effort to convince the public, the Legislative Branch and Government employees that leaks are despicable, damaging and cannot be tolerated. Leaks are not "whistle blowing."
- Resources must be provided to help the FBI do more leak investigations and the Intelligence Community (IC) Security offices do more data gathering and analysis work on leaks.
- Standardization must be obtained in the IC agencies in the matter of reporting media contacts in advance, documenting the contacts and having appropriate witnesses to media contacts.

1. This paper examines certain aspects of the leak problem - the unauthorized release of classified information to the media - and makes recommendations pertaining to two significant aspects:

° What can be done to lessen the vulnerabilities of Sensitive Compartmented Information (SCI) on Capitol Hill?

° How can the DCI's authorities and powers be strengthened on the matters of protecting SCI and preventing leaks in the Intelligence Community?
